

Charities are in progress

Charitable events launched by the Youth Union of the Faculty of Agriculture and Water Management are continuing. Similarly, one of the good deeds was organized by the activists of the Youth Union of the faculty of Water Management. The faculty also supported the initiative and provided the necessary support. The Students held an action at the faculty for obtaining information about the elderly who lost their breadwinner in Olmazor district of Tashkent city and congratulated them on the 26th anniversary of the Constitution of the Republic of Uzbekistan. Members of the Faculty's Youth Union have been honored with a special celebration program. Holiday gifts and other items were handed over to the elderly. Within the framework of this action all the students of the faculty made their contribution. They helped in hand. Thanks to everyone who helped organize the campaign. Let your good deeds be done. The Faculty of Youth Union continues to act! Join our group and become active.
