

SUBJECTS TAUGHT AT THE DEPARTMENT

Bachelor`s degree

The name of the subject	Brief information about the subject
Tax and Taxation	The goal of teaching tax and taxation is to study and generate students skills in taxonomy, taxation, ways of reducing tax burden and taxation, and budgeting in order to educate highly qualified accountants and economists.
Financial Accounting	The financial account sets the following tasks for the study of its subject: account of monetary funds; accounting of enterprise's inventory; financial reporting and the procedure for its submission.
Financial Management	The main objective of the science is to define the spheres and purposes of enterprises and organizations, to develop financial strategies and tactical plans aimed to achieve these goals, and to explain to perspective specialists how to implement them, improve their competitiveness and evaluate their results.
Money, Credit and Banks	The goal of monetary credit and banking science is to train money circulation, to make money reforms, to improve the monetary system, to ensure the stability of the national currency, to develop the norms of credit development in the conditions of market economy, the emergence and stages of development of banks; formation and stability of banking systems in Uzbekistan .
Insurance	The aim of the course is to provide students with information on the history of insurance formation, insurance coverage, management of state and private insurance companies in the country, the current state of the insurance market, the financial basis of insurance institutions and development of the insurance market in Uzbekistan for students, who are training for standing highly qualified economists.
Financial Reporting	The financial reporting subject sets out the following tasks for the study of its subject: accounting of fixed assets of the enterprise; financial reporting and the procedure for its submission.
Finance Market	The aim of teaching the subject is to develop students` knowledge, skills and experiences on financial marketing.

---

Accounting Features in Other Sectors	The aim of the course is to provide students with the knowledge of accounting skills in other sectors, such as accounting, business processes and market reporting.
Accounting in Water Economy	The task of the science is to teach the students for the accounting in water-industrial budget organizations and water users associations, which are partially non-governmental non-commercial organizations.
Economic Analysis and Audit	The aim of this course is to make the right decision-making and audit properly, with the timely understanding of the changes taking place in enterprises using various sources of information in the future workplace.
Statistics	The purpose of the statistical study is to provide students with skills in gathering, summarizing, analyzing, and assuring their accuracy in market economics for future students, who become highly qualified economists.
Theory of Accounting	The purpose of the theory of accounting is to provide students with the knowledge of theoretical basis of accounting in the market economy in terms of market economics, forms, expenditures, organization forms of accounting in enterprises, and international standards for improving the accounting of financial results of enterprises and their sources to create the ability to learn.
Theory of Economic Analysis	The aim of the course is to educate students who will become future highly qualified economists to have knowledge about market economy and audit.
Economic Analysis	The aim of this course is to provide timely understanding of the changes in enterprises and to make the right decision-making by using different sources of information in future workplaces.
Finance	The main purpose of the course is to provide students with theoretical and practical knowledge on the fundamentals of business financing.
Accounting	The aim of the course is to teach students to create theoretical knowledge on the theory of accounting in enterprises and apply them to practice.

---

Audit	The purpose of the course is to provide students with the opportunity to become highly qualified accountants and auditors for theoretical and scientific study of audit in the market economy, effective use of audit services, and the characteristics and criteria of the audit.
International Accounting Standards	The goal of the International Accounting Standards is to provide students with the knowledge of international standards in accounting for business accounting in the market economy, as well as for future high-qualified economists, to improve their economic resources and their sources of income, financial results of enterprises.
Management Accounting	The purpose of the course of management accounting is to create the ability to apply international standards for accounting students in the market economy, business expenses, economic resources and their sources of income, and accounting of financial results of enterprises in the conditions of market economy for future highly qualified economists.
Information Systems of Accounting	Today it is important to learn 1S and 1UZ programs, approved by the State Tax Committee of the Republic of Uzbekistan. This course also allows students to learn the features of the program "Electronic Assistance to Accountants".
Investment	The aim of the training is to develop skills in the field of market economy in terms of increasing the investment activity and the sources of financing, efficiency assessment methods, ways to manage investment risks, characteristics and criteria of financing investments by international credit institutions.