

For many years the department has been cooperating with the Uzbekistan Agricultural Economics Research Institute, with the Tashkent College “Economics and Business”, as well as with the academic lyceum “Tashkent International House” in the field of educational, methodological, cultural and educational activities.